ABC COMMISSION TAKES ACTION ON 47 PERMIT VIOLATIONS AND APPROVES STORE LOCATIONS FOR THREE ABC BOARDS

RALEIGH – The three-member North Carolina Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission today levied more than $56,000 in fines or suspensions of five days or more on representatives of 46 clubs, convenience stores, restaurants and other businesses holding permits to sell alcohol in North Carolina. Fines begin Nov. 8 and suspensions Nov. 15.

The Commission also approved store locations requested by three ABC Boards.

- Greensboro ABC Board requested three sites:

4629 and 4627 West Market Street, Greensboro (replacing a store currently located at 4639-C West Market Street).

1312-106 Bridford Parkway, Greensboro & 1315-B Bridford Parkway, Greensboro. (The Greensboro ABC Board has not yet made its final decision about which of the proposed sites – located across the street from each other -- they will select for a new store.)

- Thomasville ABC Board requested a store and warehouse to be located at 1144 Randolph Street and 21 Cedar Lodge Road.
- Warren County ABC Board proposed a new store and warehouse for US Highway 158 West, Norlina. The new location will replace two stores currently operated by the Warren County ABC Board.
